SKIN LONGEVITY APPROACH:

Encourages the adoption of routines that reduce oxidative and inflammatory stress, favoring the use of ingredients that support the skin in a targeted and natural way, enhancing its ability to self-repair.

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH:

Ectocomplex-3 was developed from the study of extremophiles, tiny molecules that help plants and microorganisms survive in harsh environments. This advanced technology supports skin regeneration, provides antioxidant protection, and enhances skin firmness.

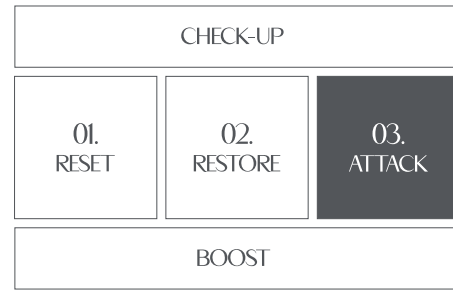

COMBINATION WITH TECHNOLOGY:

In synergy with the dermax | Arosha device, the exclusive formulations of the .350 X-AGE SUPREME line for in-cabin treatments offer progressively more noticeable results due to increased penetration of active ingredients and the targeted stimulation of new collagen and elastin production.

DIFFERENTIATED HOME SOLUTIONS:

Personalized formulations for the specific needs of the skin are the basis of the new textures created by Arosha for home treatment of dry and combination-oily skin..

Arosha formulations combine natural and biotechnological ingredients for visible and long-lasting results against the imperfections of the most advanced stages of aging.

The X-AGE SUPREME line integrates a synergy of molecules with proven anti-wrinkle, lifting, plumping, illuminating and soothing properties, amplified by Ectocomplex-3 technology, which enhances its effectiveness and optimizes results.
